“ I cannot believe Bill is not with us. He has been there for me - thick or thin - for 40 years. He was fiercely loyal to those he called friends. Beneath a hard exterior there was someone who loved to write poems, loved to nurture plants, and loved his pets. He hated to see his friends suffer, and would do anything to help them. And though he was sometimes opinionated, you can always trust that whatever he said was truthful, even though it might hurt sometimes. He was my rock -- a constant when life got rough. As we used to say to each other, "I love you, man!" Rest in peace.
