

Mr. William Edward Evans

May 3, 1959 - February 11, 2025

William Edward Evans, affectionately known as Slick, son of the late Renetta Evans, was born May 3, 1959, in Henry County Virginia. He departed this life on February 11, 2025, after battling a short illness. He was educated in the Robeson County School System and graduated from Lumberton Senior High School in 1977. He was employed by Converse, Sam's Club and various other jobs until he retired. William liked to fish and had several hobbies. William was very popular; he had lots of friends and will be missed by all who knew him. He loved to talk, and he never met a stranger! He was a true friend and was devoted to his family. William jubilantly accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior in 2017. William was preceded in death by his mother, Renetta Evans, his sisters, Renee Evans, and Denise Evans. He leaves to mourn: his siblings, Gordon Evans (Kandis), Willie Lee Evans, and Gail Jones (Dennis). His beloved nieces, Shakira, Terri (Reginald), Cakora, Marquita, Laterra, Britteny, (Corrie), Skyy and Hannah. His favorite uncle, Billy Martin. His beloved nephews, Christopher (Annette), Spencer, and Donovan, and his special friend, Maggie Smith. William also has a host of great nieces, great nephews, cousins and friends.
