Regardless what was going on in his life, he would make you laugh about something silly. That was a tactic of his that he mastered so well. We shall all miss him. Rest on June Skee. We will always keep you in our hearts.

“ This is one hard comment to post. June and my brother were super close. My family met June from hanging with Eric Thompson (our neighbors back then) and we were all cool ever since. June would always stay in touch with my family. When my brother passed he was the most encouraging person. When I lost our mother - he was just the same. June - thank you for being a best friend to our family!!! I send prayers to your dad and Michelle. May you rest in peace my friend.

“ Our sincere prayer is that the Most High will continue to strengthen the family in the coming days. We met in 1977 when my family moved to Mack's Park; from that day to this, our families have been connected. There are no words that can express how sorrowful we are during this difficult time. Please know that we love each of you, and "June Skee" will always be our brother. Rest easy, June, a.k.a. "Preston Mc and you know that." ~The Warrens (Cletus, Reggie, and Corine)
