“ My sincere condolences to the family for the loss of this kind, caring man. He always had a smile, a word of encouragement and a happy response in his interactions with others. He blessed us so much with his beautiful voice and came to my rescue several times when a soloist was needed. We will all miss his presence in our lives but God set him free from earthly pains. Prayers lifted for Mittie and the family for comfort, peace and remembrance of cherished memories made.
