“ We met at Simon Temple Church and became friends. I spoke with her in October of 2021 and kept calling off and on and texted but never heard back. Thought something happened. We were both dealing with cancer. Googled, nothing! Then a few nights ago, I said Lord what happened to Dee? I googled again and I found she had passed away. My deepest condolences to her family.

“ This saddens me so, I had been trying to reach her by calling her phone leaving text. Lord Dee we didn't know. No one had a way of letting us know. We attended church together and became friends. Rest in Paradise my friend.

“ With great sadness, my mother (Daisy M. Sanders) and I found out just today (7/13/2022) that Dee passed away. We had not heard back from Dee for several months and feared the worst. Dee and my mother go way back to their working days at Black & Decker. Dee was a quiet, sweet and caring soul & we considered her part of our family. I remember how she lovingly comforted my mother when my brother Daniel Jr. died 8/30/2019. My mother’s fondest memory was of her, Dee and Ms. Lula going to the movies for a ‘girls day out!’ Now Dee is with our wonderful Lord & Savior Jesus Christ. “Gone to the Land of Peace & Rest, Gone to the One Who Loves her Best!”Our hearts are very heavy today & we pray comfort over Dee’s family & loved ones. Sincerely, Ms. Daisy M. Sanders (of Fayetteville, NC) and Daisy’s daughter, Mrs. Jacqueline S. Williams (of Jamaica Estates, NYC).
