

Mr. Willie Smith Jr.

July 13, 1949 - September 26, 2022

Willie Smith Jr. was born on July 13th, 1949, to the late Bessie Mae Smith and the late Willie Smith Sr. of Alexandria, LA. He was one of eight children and grew up in a home rich with love and support. He left this earth to be with his lovely wife Brenda Louise Smith on Monday, September 26th, 2022, at Womack Army Hospital in Fayetteville, NC

This beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, leader, and friend lived a life of purpose and devotion. He succumbed to his battle with cancer in the waning hours of the morning after overcoming a multitude of challenges in the years following the loss of Brenda.

Willie was a brilliant, driven and focused man. He and Brenda were married for forty-one years, and their love saw the gift of three children, which in turn begot five beautiful grandchildren and one great-grandchild. It was a union that saw them across several continents and through three wars, forging a bond that transcended anything they could have imagined. Willie achieved the United States Army rank of CW3 before retiring to pursue his passion for playing pool and working on computers in his spare time. He was a leader throughout his life and fought for the things that truly mattered. Which he did until the day he left this earth.

Willie is survived by His three children Kamela Dautain of Orlando, FL,

Nytasha (Mary) Obasi of Brooklyn, NY, and Derrick (Jamie) Smith of Waxhaw, NC. Five Grandchildren; Jasmine Thomas of Orlando, FL, Gabrielle Dauntain, Alysia Dauntain of Charlotte, NC, Johnathan Dauntain of Orlando, FL, and Ellia Smith of Waxhaw, NC. One great-grandchild; Kyrin McClain of Orlando, FL. His brother Leon (Debra) Smith of Alexandria, LA, and his sister Linda (Ray) McJunkin of Dallas, TX. Sister in-laws Mable Smith of Alexandria, LA and Ossie Smith of Gretna, LA. He is also survived by several additional family member and friends who will no doubt miss him dearly.
