

Ms. Willis Mae Lewis

August 6, 1951 - April 1, 2025

Ms. Willis Mae Lewis was born in Cumberland County on August 6, 1951, to the late William Earl Mitchell and Bertha Mae Lewis. She transitioned to glory on April 1, 2025, at the Highland House Rehabilitation Healthcare Facility, leaving a legacy of love and resilience.

Ms. Lewis received her education at Essex County Public Schools in Newark, New Jersey. She dedicated herself to her studies while joyfully participating in the Baptist Church choir, a testament to her vibrant spirit.

She embraced motherhood with the birth of her only child, Trena L. Lewis, then relocated to Fayetteville, which was her home. Ms. Lewis was passionate about life, enjoying shopping, fishing, traveling, and savoring crab legs and ice cream, which colored her days with joy.

She is preceded in death by her father, William Earl Mitchell; her mother, Bertha Lewis; her sister, Geraldine Dingle; and her brothers, Earl Junior and Brian Mitchell, along with numerous aunts and uncles.

Ms. Lewis leaves behind her devoted and caring daughter, Trena Lewis, of Fayetteville, North Carolina; her sister, Vivian Roman; and her brothers, Terry and Chris Mitchell, who reside in Fayetteville. She is also survived by six first cousins and many relatives and friends, who will hold her memory close to their hearts.
