

Mrs. Yismara E. Frazier

January 24, 1985 - December 7, 2021

Yismara De Gracia was born on January 24, 1985 to Idania Wright and Juan De Gracia. On December 7, 2021 Yismara was called home to rejoice with the Lord. God began to let her know that her work here was finished. "Your work here on earth has been completed. You walked heavenly and you were a bold soldier for the Lord."

Yismara attended EE Smith High School where she received her high school diploma. She went on to Fayetteville Beauty College and received her degree in Cosmetology.

On May 15th, 2006 Yismara and Antwan Frazier were married and her life began as housewife, mother of three children, friend, nourisher, counselor and when you came in contact with her you became a part what was around her throughout her life, family. Once after you met her that bond could never be broken and whatever she could do, there was no problem or task that came her way she couldn't complete. She was appointed as Deaconess at Faith and Deliverance Worship Center where she proved her faithfulness to God whom she known for her entire life was the center point of her life.

Yismara Frazier leaves to cherish in her memory: mother Idania Wright of Panama, daddy Lloyd Wright of Fayetteville, NC, father Juan De Gracia of Panama, siblings: brother Lloyd Wright JR, of Fayetteville, NC, sister Shamika Wright of Fayetteville, NC, sister Yatzuri De Gracia of Panama, Husband

Antwan Frazier SR of Florida, children: James Reyes, Antwan Frazier JR, and Aviance Frazier. Mother-in-law Martha Frazier of Florida. She also has a host of family and friends.
