“ Yvonda and I grew up together as best friends on Springfield Ave in Norfolk, Va. We were very close and shared a lot of lifes adventures together. I have not seen nor talked to her for a few years. Her death is going to be on me for a while. I know she was tired and was ready to go home. Yvonda all those times we hung out and dancing at the Main Event were great memories. Sitting on the steps of my house waiting for the arrival of Annette who you gave me the honors at 19 to be a god mother. We had a lot of good times and they will forever be in my heart. Rest on my friend, get your rest and I'll love you forever.
